

Library Meeting Room

This room is open for use to all organizations or groups with educational, cultural, civic or public service activities. Reservations are to be made through the Recreation Office.

Study Rooms

There are two small study rooms available (2-3 people max) for which we do not accept reservations. It is considered first come first serve and will be unlocked for those requiring a quiet, private space for studying, small group studying or conference calls.

The Minnesota Room

This room holds up to 6 people and may be reserved by calling the main library number or talking to someone at the check-out desk.